I'd like to make a new vector which will tell me for which neurons all neurons are active. Example: 0,1,2 0,0,1 0,0,0 in this example there would be only 1 active neuron from the first vector and 2 active neuron from the second, but from the third vector only 1 neuron would be active, and for that neuron the other neuron would be inactive because there are 0 or 0 neurons active. I have tried something like this for

(i in 1:length(activelayers)){ for(j in length(activelayers[i]):length(activelayers)){
N_active[j] 6d1f23a050
